Nine stages, from the first step to closing.

Buying a property in Florida follows a known path. Each stage has its own purpose, an estimated timeframe, and decisions that need to be settled before moving on to the next.

This guide walks through that path from beginning to end, with the average time for each phase.

The timeframes shown are estimates. They vary with the type of property, the method of payment and how quickly the parties involved respond.

IN THIS GUIDE

I	Preparation	01 — 03
II	Offer and contract	04 — 05
III	Verification and approval	06 — 07
IV	Closing	08 — 09

SECTION I · 01 — 03

Preparation

01 Define your objectives

TIME: 1 TO 3 DAYS

Before looking for a property, answer this:

- Are you buying to live in it?
- For vacations?
- To invest?
- To generate rental income?

This definition shapes the location, the type of property, the financing approach and even the tax structure of the purchase.

02 Financial planning

TIME: 1 TO 7 DAYS

At this stage you define:

- All cash or financed
- Funds available for the down payment
- Maximum budget
- Closing costs
- Maintenance costs
- Tax strategy, where applicable

03 Choosing the property

TIME: VARIABLE

This is where the search begins. At this stage we review:

- Location
- Appreciation potential
- The developer's track record
- Rental rules
- HOA
- Monthly costs
- Return
- Liquidity
- Resale potential

SECTION II · 04 — 05

Offer and contract

04 Offer

TIME: 1 TO 5 DAYS

Once the property is found, it is time to present an offer. At this stage we negotiate:

- Price
- Timeline
- Contingencies
- Closing date

PRE-APPROVAL LETTER

A document issued by the lender showing that the buyer is in a position to purchase in the price range being considered. It is not a guarantee that the loan will close, but it strengthens the offer.

05 Contract

TIME: RIGHT AFTER ACCEPTANCE

With the offer accepted:

- Contract signed
- Earnest money deposit
- File opened with the title company

SECTION III · 06 — 07

Verification and approval

06 Due diligence

TIME: 7 TO 15 DAYS, OR AS SET BY CONTRACT

One of the most important stages. The following are reviewed:

- Property documentation
- Inspection, where applicable
- Appraisal, where financing is involved
- Association rules
- Legal standing
- Financing
- Insurance

The appraisal is the valuation performed by a professional hired by the lender. The value assigned to the property is the basis the lender uses to determine how much it will finance.

This is the moment to confirm the investment meets your expectations before closing.

07 Loan approval

WHERE APPLICABLE

The lender reviews:

- Personal documents
- Income
- Assets
- Source of funds

Final approval is then issued.

SECTION IV · 08 — 09

Closing

08 Closing

The title company coordinates the closing. It is responsible for:

- Verifying title to the property
- Ensuring there are no legal encumbrances
- Preparing all documentation
- Recording the deed

AVERAGE TOTAL TIME

All cash, 15 to 30 days. Financed, 30 to 60 days.

09 You receive your property

From here on, you can:

- Live in it
- Use it for vacations
- Put it up for rent
- Begin your investment in the United States

Every stage gets simpler with someone who has walked it before.

The path is the same for everyone, but the pace changes with the type of property, the method of payment and how prepared each buyer is.

If you'd like to go through these stages with guidance at every one of them, let's talk.
